

Alliance for Community Media

Membership Application

ACM represents public, educational and governmental (PEG) access organizations and media centers and the people who use PEG access to communicate with their communities. ACM seeks to help these individuals and organizations maximize their resources and continue delivering local media content by creating a forum where people can learn, share ideas and interact with their colleagues. Be a part of the only national organization that truly represents the interests of community media and has a readily mobilized constituency. Join the Alliance today!
